

GENDER POLICY

Introduction

International Blue Cross (IBC) has a mission to prevent, treat and reduce substance use, abuse and dependency among the most vulnerable people around the world. Headquartered in Bern Switzerland, IBC is an international actor in the field of development cooperation and serves as the umbrella organization for its national member organizations. IBC has no regional offices but works with in-country partners.

The members are independent, non-political and non-denominational Christian associations that form a network to assist marginalised populations and people harmed by, or at risk to be harmed by, alcohol and drugs.

As a global organisation, IBC also implements international development cooperation programmes in the field of substance abuse in line with the United Nations 2030 Agenda. Project activities are run in grass roots settings in various locations and include alcohol and drug prevention, treatment and counselling for people with substance abuse problems, as well as international policy advice and lobbying.

The six core values of the International Blue Cross are: Liberating Spirituality, Excellence, Empowerment, Solidarity, Respect, and Inclusiveness.

Purpose

This document focuses on the issue of gender. Its objective is to detail the content of the IBC gender policy.

Our experience has taught us that the people we support need extra help in order to have the same opportunities in life as others. The International Human Rights concern everybody in the world: men, women, girls and boys. We recognise that no country in the world have human rights fully realised.

Objectives

This policy aims to enable IBC to achieve the following objectives in all our interventions:

- To enable gender equality and provide the same rights and opportunities for men and women in all areas of life to make decisions and choices without limitations imposed by gender roles.
- To support gender mainstreaming where the views of men and women in all activities and all areas of the community are heard.
- To seek to understand and dismantle barriers which exclude and limit empowerment, respect, diversity and inclusion.
- To promote local ownership of development projects by increasing the resources and abilities of women and men to influence the matters that affect their own lives.

- To promote solidarity by supporting people from all backgrounds and genders so that they have equal access to our services and opportunities.
- To comply with legislation and regulations relating to Human Rights and equality.

Areas of Application

In our activities we will develop an action plan on how to achieve our gender policy among the following four areas of application:

IBC contracted partners and support recipients

- Work with our contracted partners to design and adapt our services to eliminate gender inequality wherever possible.
- Partners are responsible for developing the local complaint mechanisms and inform beneficiaries of IBC complaints procedure and opportunities for raising concerns and complaints.
- Work with partners to design and adapt our services to promote the gender policy.

IBC employees and volunteers

- Setting standards of acceptable behaviour for all employees and volunteers.
- Recruit, train and develop employees and volunteers on merit and sign code of conduct.

IBC members and donors

- Work with our donors and members so that we have a consistent approach to the issue of gender equality practice.
- IBC will inform all their independent member organisations of IBC gender policy.
- All IBC arranged member organisation and donor events require participant commitment to adhering to this policy.

The community

- Cooperate and work with relevant partners to help promote social, environmental and economic well-being in a cohesive and inclusive manner and provide structures for handling feedback and complaints.
- Communities we work with know how to complain if these commitments are not met.
- Appropriate awareness-raising tools and approaches are used with communities, which are relevant to age, language and capacity.

Complaints Procedure

IBC seeks to provide a safe environment through which stakeholders can voice a concern, without fear of reprisal or unfair treatment (Non-retaliation/ whistleblowing principle). These instructions will apply to the handling of complaints unless they are in conflict with compulsory Swiss legislation in which case IBC complies with mandatory legislation. The Swiss law supplements the complaint procedure as necessary for handling the complaint. Complaints can be made in English or in French by filling in an online form, by e-mail, phone, in person, or by post. IBC website contains details of how to complain, including a sample complaints letter format. IBC implements a fast-track process for dealing with complaints about Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (SEA) and other gross misconduct issues.

The complainant shall receive confirmation of receipt of the complaint, within 5 working days after IBC receives the complaint. The email, letter or phone call should give the following information:

- when and how the complaint was received;
- how the IBC has responded to the complaint so far and what it will do next;
- the name of the focal point or person responsible for the complaint;
- the person to contact with questions or feedback.

IBC is committed to responding to all complaints and concerns of abuse in English or in French. IBC has responsibility for this work, and carries out investigations, and delivers support to survivors of and victims according to the IBC complaints policy. IBC will communicate the preliminary outcome of an investigation to the complainant(s), where possible, within 60 days after acknowledgment of the complaint. In complex or exceptional cases, the investigation period may take longer.

Any investigation may result in disciplinary hearings and disciplinary action. Thereby, IBC applies the disciplinary guidelines of ACAS (Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service) and the national employment law. Allegation of gross misconduct will result in immediate suspension of this person from work until investigation is concluded. Gross misconduct includes issues such as corruption, sexual or any other form of exploitation, violence, abuse and criminal acts (<http://www.acas.org.uk/media/pdf/f/m/Acas-Code-of-Practice-1-on-disciplinary-and-grievance-procedures.pdf>).

If the complainant(s) or subject(s) of complaint does not accept the outcome of the investigation, he/she/it/they can appeal the decision to the Network Committee (NC) using the IBC Complaints procedure as explained above. For a more detailed overview of the good practice on handling complaints we adapt the ACT Alliance Complaints Procedure \(2016\). Its guidelines are the basis for our process (<https://actalliance.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/11/Complaints-and-Investigation-Guidelines-July-2010-1.pdf>).

Responsibilities

The Network Committee (NC) is the driving force behind this policy and its members are informed of all logged complaints without confidential details. NC provides the secretariat with the assistance to drive the IBC strategy, statutes and vision. All IBC employees are responsible for upholding, respecting and acting in accordance with this policy and two-yearly signing that they have updated their knowledge on the topic.

Management provides direction, training and support to ensure employees and contracted partners understand their responsibilities and can apply this policy in their areas of work. The Code of Conduct states that it is the duty and the responsibility of all managers, employees and IBC representatives to report in line with this policy any suspicions or incidences of inappropriate behavior. IBC arranges case-by-case support for victims. Victims have access to medical and psychological support. Survivors and victims can choose if and when they would like to take up the support options available to them.

Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed every 4 years, or as necessary. IBC will review the operation of this policy in consultation with the NC, employees and other stakeholders, where appropriate, in light of changing best practice and the law, amending the policy where required. IBC will take into account any lessons learned from handling complaints and to take into consideration any feedback received. IBC secretariat staff is responsible for the effective implementation of this policy in all IBC work.
